Communication & Respect

Communication is important to all of us. We seek to provide consistent, stress free, clear and comfortable exchanges. We make every effort to create and maintain a respectful environment to ensure the safety and security of everyone at the Custody Exchange Center.

Parents and children can be expected to be treated with respect.

Safety

The program is designed so that parents have no on-site contact. You will be assigned to use one of the two entrances to the Custody Exchange Center. To ensure no contact you must park in the designated area and use the door that is assigned to you for all exchanges.

Before services may begin, both parents must participate in orientation.

Please bring the following with you to orientation:

- Current court or custody orders, current Protection from Abuse Orders (PFA), any additional relevant paperwork

During orientation you can expect to meet Custody Exchange Center staff, tour the facility, review policies and procedures, discuss safety concerns and get answers to any of your questions.
